Will the Real Democrat Please Stand Up!

Last month, the Democratic contenders for president appeared at a forum on health care. Only one contender favors a single payer universal health care plan and has already co-sponsored a bill on it. Can you guess which one?

By J. F. Miglio

The Contenders

Hillary Clinton. Despite her tough talk about the inequities in our current health care system, her plan for universal health care is similar to the Republican versions being pushed by Mitt Romney and Arnold Schwarzenegger, i.e. allow insurance companies to remain in control of the system but tinker with it around the edges and impose a few government regulations.

You'd think after getting her ass kicked by Republicans and insurance lobbyists the first time around with her effort at health care reform, she'd wise up and support a single payer universal health care bill. Instead, she's still trying to play both ends against the middle by appeasing insurance companies and supporting a Republican-lite approach while she pretends to be formulating a plan to help average Americans.

This is why progressives aren't crazy about Hillary-- she acts too much like a Republican. And ironically, this is the same reason why Republicans despise her-- she's just as corrupt and power-driven as they are. Perhaps once a "Goldwater Girl," always a Goldwater Girl! If you think I'm being too harsh on her, ask yourself
